

Progress Review Presentation	EEY4189 - Software Design in Group - Rubric (Progress Review Presentation)			Total Marks (100)
Marks	0-3 Marks	4-6 Mark	7-9 Marks	10 Marks
Identification of the project and its scope	Project was not clearly identified and project scope was not clearly defined.	Project is partially identified. Project scope was not defined properly.	Project is properly identified. Project scope was partially defined.	Project was clearly identified and scope was properly defined.
Project Implementation	Project implementation has not yet started.	Project implementation has started, but progress is not satisfactory.	Project implementation has started and progress is satisfactory.	Project implementation has started and progress well managed.
Identification of project objectives and functional requirements	Project objectives were not clearly identified and functional requirements were not clearly defined.	Project objectives were partially identified. FR were not defined properly.	Project objectives were properly identified. But FR were partially defined.	Project objectives were clearly identified and functional requirements were clearly defined.
Management of GIT repository	Student has not created or is not a member of the GIT repository.	Student has created or is a member of the GIT repository but not done anything on the repository.	Student has conducted some development tasks in the GIT repository.	Student has conducted tasks contributing for the project in the GIT repository. Mentor is a member of a GIT repository.
Conducting Monthly retrospective and Maintaining CMMI Meeting Minutes	Student has not conducted monthly retrospective and not maintained CMMI meeting minutes	Student has conducted either a monthly retrospective or maintained only one CMMI meeting minutes	Student has conducted both a monthly retrospective and maintained one CMMI meeting minutes.	Student has conducted two monthly retrospective and maintained two CMMI meeting minutes.
Use of project governance tool	Student has not used any project governance tool	Student has used a project governance tool but has not properly recorded the project progress.	Student has used a project governance tool and has fairly recorded the project progress.	Student has used a project governance tool and has very well recorded the project progress.
Submission of required documents - SRS along with the Progress Report	Not submitted the SRS	Submitted the SRS but incomplete	Submitted the SRS but lacks few details	Submitted the completed SRS document along with the progress report with supervisor signature.
Collaboration and team work	No proper collaboration and team work among the members.	Some collaboration and team work among the members.	Fair amount of collaboration and team work among the members.	Good collaboration and team work among the members.
Ability to Answer Questions	Did not answer questions.	Find it difficult to answer questions.	Give satisfactory answers.	Able to answer questions well.
Presentation Skills	The presentation was not timed appropriate. Some portions of the slides were ignored. English was difficult to understand.	Acceptable use was made of the student's presentation time (2-3 minutes). Most sections of the slides was mentioned. English quality was inconsistent.	Good use was made of the student's presentation time (2-3 minutes). Each section of the slides was mentioned. English quality was acceptable.	Excellent use was made of the student's presentation time (2-3 minutes). Each section of the slides was mentioned. English quality was advanced.